NOTRE DAME UPDATES/CONCERNS:

Rebecca Blais – Uber presence on Notre Dame campus complicated. Petitions for sanctuary for undocumented students. Father John Jenkins signed It's On Us pledge and urges others to do so.

Dan Allen – Moving to the Alumni Association on December 1st. He will be split between on-campus positions and off-campus positions. The home of some students was robbed—Mr. Allen recommended that they turn their alarms on. Otherwise, things have gone well. Next meeting will be in January.

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE UPDATES/CONCERNS

Kelly Jordan – Talked about the painted statue of the Blessed Brother Andre. Stated that [entity], new to campus housing, is hoping to expand by twenty (20) beds. Announced that St. Joseph County Sexual Assault Response Team was having their second meeting at Notre Dame. Expressed hope that the South Bend Police Department would be represented at the meeting.

Hank Gettinger – Talked about the Statewide Baccalaureate Program, mentioning that the no. 2 ranked in the program attended Adams High. Talked about outreach through Trinity High in partnership with St. Mary's. He also announced a basketball match between Holy Cross and the South Bend Titans, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., tomorrow.

George Sutherland – Stated that Student Government would be giving out food baskets this Sunday and announced that there would be a dance marathon on April 1st, 2017.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY SOUTH BEND UPDATES/CONCERNS

Steven Salisbury – Went back to school to study Econ and Sociology. Now a senator in the Student Government Association. He reported that in response to shootings, there would be a Black Lives Matter roundtable. The aim is to set the tone for the season and to establish a place for peaceful discourse. Also announced Make America Love Again—a safe space for underrepresented groups to which some members of the SGA belong.

Gail Mancini – Reminded Gavin to meet at “their place.” Reported that interviews of IU Med School applicants had begun.

RESIDENTS/NEIGHBORS UPDATES AND CONCERNS

Marguerite Taylor – Talked about Robinson Community Learning Center's Turn Over a New Leaf community service program. School students have raked forty (40) homes. She also reported that the NNRO now has new houses along South Bend Avenue.

Lu Webster – High school seniors are coming to St. Mary's for tours. Highlight of the tour—the chapel in the dorm. Announced the December 3rd Festive Christmas Auction. They have an autographed Blackhawks hockey stick. The auction begins at 4:00 pm. Will start as a silent auction then become a live one. Stated that the Washington D.C. trip would be the last funded for the kids. Kelly Park is being renovated. Announced Donor's Walkway.

Matt Costello – Reported that things have not been too bad. Recounted story of Notre Dame students hitting beer cans with whiffle balls and stopping their game to let a family pass by. He stated that it was an illustration of how things have improved. He recommended that students look over the rules for fire pits—fire must be contained and open fires are fineable. Burning of leaves is not allowed. He stated that nighttime bonfires are the greatest nuisance. Wanted to have a letter to a property owner (regarding a resident's fire pit) written by the CCAC. Gavin Ferlic offered to draft the letter, but from Council instead of CCAC.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE BOARD

CITY OF SOUTH BEND UPDATES/CONCERNS

Ashley Colborn – Stated that issues of code enforcement regarding taxi cabs were being worked on. A campaign for a Taxi Bill of Rights is brought up, where students are advised not to take cabs, as the situation on-campus has been problematic. Ms. Colborn asked that any problems be reported immediately. The officers present at the meeting suggested calling 9-1-1 if any student was in fear of their safety. Councilmember Gavin Ferlic suggested gathering student cases.

Adriana Rodriguez – Announced that the Chronic Nuisance ordinance would be addressed at the November 28, 2016 Common Council Meeting. She stated that a few updates were expected.

Captain Hammer – Gave tips to students regarding winter safety. Announced retirement next month and expressed happiness in working with the CCAC. Stated that Captain Lancaster would take his place. Stated that nuisance abatement Armadillos for surveillance were planted in high crime or high nuisance areas. He explained that constant, nonstop surveillance suppresses crime activity.

Kareemah Fowler – Announced that there would be an open house at the Office of the City Clerk in honor of City Council Attorney Kathleen Cekanski-Farrand's retirement on November 29, 2016, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Clerk Fowler also stated that the City Clerk's Office would attend and record minutes for each CCAC meeting from this meeting forward.

Joseph Molnar – Stated that it had been a good year for lawn parking. Notre Dame games drove good business for the City, and many lawn parking permits were issued.

Gavin Ferlic – Thanked everyone for attending the meeting. He stated, If there is any way that the Council can support, let us know. He announced that the next meeting's date and time was to be announced, but that it would be sometime in January, after students have returned to campus.

Gavin Ferlic adjourned the meeting at 5:25 p.m.
