Perley Primary Student Art Showcase Reception

On Thursday, April 12, 2018, the Common Council, Mayor Pete Buttigieg, and City Clerk Kareemah Fowler met with students, their families, and staff from Perley Primary Fine Arts Academy for a reception to showcase their displayed art work located in the South Bend Common Council Suite, Office of the Clerk and Office of the Mayor. The Common Council and City Clerk Kareemah Fowler, have proudly welcomed the students' art work in their offices for the duration of the school year. Yesterday, students had an opportunity to view their art along with their families, and Fine Arts Facilitator, Erin Harding. City leaders shared with students' that their art work has brightened up their space and they are very supportive of the creative growth of students. The art work is a great way to showcase the students and continue to promote the arts within our education system.
