FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The City of South Bend will adopt one of its largest budgets in history at roughly $381 million dollars. Residents living West of the St. Joe River and in historically underserved communities have repeatedly asked the Common Council and James Mueller's administration to share how much of the budget is going to their neighborhoods to no avail.

Councilman Henry Davis, Jr.'s District 2- in partnership with the Kennedy Park Neighborhood Association, LaSalle Area Neighborhood Alliance, Black Lives Matter South Bend, Monroe Park Neighborhood Association and the Lincoln-Bendix Neighborhood Association will hold an event surrounding this topic. The public is invited to join us on Wednesday, October 13th, at 6 p.m. at the Civil Rights Heritage Center.

Councilman, Henry Davis Jr.
2nd District, City of South Bend, Indiana
