FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Councilmember Henry Davis will hold a press conference regarding the disappearance of Doris Douglas, a missing John Adams student

Doris Douglas, a 14-year-old from South Bend, Indiana who attends John Adams High School has been missing for two weeks. Authorities have been alerted of her absence and her mother is without any answers of her status. We are asking that all local media attend this presser so there is more attention to this case.

Doris has been declared as a runaway per the South Bend Police Department however there is not any more information on her whereabouts. Rose Douglas, Doris' mother, will be in attendance making a plea asking the community to help bring her daughter home.

The press conference is at 12:00 noon at WUBS, Lincolnway West, South Bend, Indiana

Councilman, Henry Davis Jr.
2nd District, City of South Bend, Indiana
