Petition for the Vacation of Demler Street.

To the Honorable the Board of Public Works:

The undersigned, freeholder in the City of South Bend, Indiana, respectfully prays that the street running one hundred and forty-five (145) feet north from the north line of Ewing Avenue in the City of South Bend, St. Joseph County, in the State of Indiana, and being fifty feet wide, and known as Demler Street, be vacated for the reason that it affords no inlet or outlet to anyone, and that the persons owning the property immediately to the north of said Demler Street have platted their property without putting through any street in line with or corresponding with said Demler Street, and that the same is but 145 feet in length, and that said 145 foot street can be of no service or public utility:

And your petitioner furthermore represents that he owns the entire frontage on both sides of said street, and that there are not other abutting property owners upon said 145 foot street:

And your petitioner also files herewith a map of so much of said Demler Street as it is proposed to vacate/ showing the surrounding locality thereof.

Respectfully submitted,

Samuel Demler
