CITY OF SOUTH BEND JAMES MUELLER, MAYOR
SOUTH BEND POLICE DEPARTMENT
SCOTT A. RUSZKOWSKI, CHIEF OF POLICE

Board of Public Works
City of South Bend, Indiana

October 2nd, 2025

Honorable Board Members,

The South Bend Police Department is requesting Board approval for the disposal of surplus/obsolete equipment no longer being issued to officers with the South Bend Police Department. The equipment includes one model of Remington Shotgun and one model of Smith & Wesson Handgun which are no longer used by the SBPD.

There are eight (8) Remington 870 Marine Magnums. This model has been utilized and issued for over thirty years; these shotguns have sustained much wear and tear during their lives and are no longer fit for modern police usage.

There are two-hundred-and-sixty-one (261) Smith & Wesson M&P handguns. These particular handguns have been in circulation for seven years at the police department and cannot be issued to new hires. These handguns have been used extensively for training purposes and are not fit for duty usage.

The firearms will all be traded in to and collected by Vance Outdoors, one of the vendors SBPD consistently does business with, for a credit on future purchases.

Thank you,

Sgt. Aaron M. Knepper #2174
Logistics Officer - Support Division
South Bend Police Department
(574)235-9018
