FOR RELEASE: Sunday, May 31, 2015

MAYOR BUTTIGIEG TO SPEND TWO WEEKS ON U.S. NAVY RESERVE DUTY

Mayor Pete Buttigieg will fulfill his annual two-week obligation to the U.S. Navy Reserve from Sunday, May 31 through Saturday, June 13. This is a regular part of his service requirement, which also includes one weekend a month.

During his two-week reserve duty, to be served in the Washington, DC area, Mayor Buttigieg will be in daily contact with his Administration.

A lieutenant in U.S. Navy Reserve, Mayor Buttigieg took a leave of absence to serve in Afghanistan during a seven-month deployment in 2014, earning the Joint Service Commendation Medal for his counterterrorism work. In addition to his Afghanistan deployment, since taking office in 2012, Mayor Buttigieg has continued to fulfill his monthly weekend and annual two-week service to the U.S. Navy Reserve.
